will meet at Chicago, Wednesday, the 24 day of June next, for the nomination of candidates to be supported for President and Vice President at the next election.

Republicans, and all who co-operate with them in supporting the nominees of the party, are invited to choose two delegates from each Congressional District, four at large from each State, two from each Territory, and two from the District of Columbia, to represent them in the Convention.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

ROOMS OF THE REPUBLICAN STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE, MILWAUKEE, February 13, 1880.

A State Convention of delegates representing the Republican party of Wisconsin, and of all who will co-operate with them in supporting the nominees of the party, is hereby called to meet at the Capitol in Madison, at twelve o'clock M., on Wednesday, May 13, 1880, for the purpose of placing in nomination an electoral ticket of ten electors to be supported by the party at the next Presidential election, and also to select twenty delegates, (two from each Congressional district and four from the State at large), to represent the Republican party of Wisconsin in the National Republican Convention, which is called to meet at Chicago on the 24 day of June, A. D. 1880, and to transact such other business as may be deemed necessary.

Each Senate and Assembly District is entitled

The Sage of Gramercy is the guardian of the Democratic party.

The Democratic party is now looking to Tilden as their only salvation, for the reason that he believes he is the only man who can elpher the party in next winter.

Matt Carpenter's speech in the Senate last Saturday against annulling the sentence of Fitz John Porter, will go down in history as one of the best legal arguments ever made in the Senate.

The Moffett bill-punch has at last proved a failure in Virginia, and the old license system has been re-established, and will go into effect on the first of May. The bill-punch did not decrease liquor drinking nor increase the revenue of the State.

It is to be presumed that Mr. Washburne's candidacy is out of the question, since he wrote the letter of February 13.
The struggle in the Convention, if it can be called a struggle, will be between Grant and Blaine with seven chances out of ten in favor of Grant.

Lieutenant Governor Bingham will necessarily be absent during the remainder of the session of the Legislature, and on Monday night on taking his leave made a most little speech which was loudly applauded. Governor Bingham is an excellent preaching officer, and is popular because he is able and just.

Some of the Democratic justices during the coming campaign—providing Tilden nominates himself—will be "More Mules," "Copenhagen," "Retortum is not necessary," "Rottenness in Denmark," "Don't fail to get one vote in Oregon for $10,000," "Give us ciphers and Gramercy Park," "We pay no income tax," and so on.

The last issue of the Clinton paper came to us under the name of the Rock County Republican, which sounds better than the "Clinton Independent," under which it was formerly published. We trust that Captain Swift will make a success of the Republic. He is a man of sound intelligence, is a good writer, an undivided Republican, and deserves the most flattering success.

The Franklin Home, Philadelphia, an institute for the cure of inebriates, has graduated about eleven hundred, and of this number five hundred have been completely cured of an appetite to drink. It is said that "tapering off" method is not employed at the Franklin Home. They begin at the root of the evil at once, deny the inmates of all liquor, and practice a course of treatment which rarely fails to prove successful.

The Milwaukee News, under the management of Mr. James S. White, has been greatly improved as a newspaper, and we think we see an improvement in its politics, though it continues to be Democratic.
It donned a new dress in its first issue of this week, which gives very much to the appearance of the News. The News ought to succeed in Milwaukee, and we hope it will notwithstanding its politics is not that kind which is on the "boom."

The Deaf and Dumb Institute at Delavan is doing a very good work in teaching the pupils the articulation method. A number of exhibitions have been given recently, and the result is remarkably satisfactory.
One class of pupils that have been in school since last September only, showed their ability to understand thoroughly sentences which were spoken to them, and after having received them, they correctly wrote the sentences on the blackboard, not only as they were spoken, but in shorthand so excellent as to hardly be surpassed by the best professional penman in the country.
The teachers of these classes are to be thanked for their skill and industry in teaching the articulation method in the Delavan Institute. It is a practical method, and will become more generally taught in such institutions.

There is one bad feature about the Fitz-John Porter case which is now before the GOOD BYE, MR. EVARTS.

Senator Bayard's Speech on the Fitz-John Porter Case.

It Falls Far Short of Senator Logan and Carpenter's Objections.

And Several of His Statements will be Challenged by

Passage of the Bill.

able Money.

Through Congress.

selves.

FITZ-JOHN PORTER.

Senator Bayard's Speech on the Randolph Bill.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—Senator Bayard's speech on the Fitz John Porter case hardly came up to expectation, and the general opinion is that it fell far short of meeting Logan's and Carpenter's objections to the bill on constitutional grounds. He went somewhat into the evidence, and did not seem to be thoroughly familiar with it. Several of his statements will be challenged by General Logan. It appears that Secretary Evarts is in favor of the passage of Senator Randolph's bill to restore Fitz John Porter to the army, and he is assisting Porter's friends in lobbying. There has been such a rumor about for several days, but it was supposed to be founded on the fact that the law firm of which Evarts is a partner were counsel for Porter before the board of inquiry, and Mr. Evarts was consulted frequently as to the mode of procedure, but to day it is stated positively that Evarts has been using his influence with at least one Republican Senator from an Eastern State to persuade him to vote for the passage of the Randolph bill. It is supposed that Evarts does this in his capacity as attorney at law, and not as Secretary of State. Porter is poor, and owes the firm of which Evarts is a member a large sum of money, so that if the bill passes, giving him $80,000 or $70,000, Evarts, Sumner & Co. can collect their fees.

FORT'S BILL.

Providing for the Exchange of Trade Dollars for the Legal-Tender.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—The House Committee on Coinage has agreed to report favorably the bill introduced at the extra session of Mr. Fort, of Illinois, providing for exchange of trade dollars for legal-tender standard dollars, and giving the advantage of the exchange to the public. There is such a dislike this session among members of Congress to placing themselves on record with reference to financial measures, and such general opposition to that agitation that there is great doubt of the passage of this bill.

TO BE SOLD.

Wisconsin Railroads to be Sold at Auction to Satisfy the Bondholders.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., March 8.—A decree of sale was issued by Judge Dyer this afternoon against the Milwaukee & Northwestern Railway and the Menasha & Appleton Railway, the two roads to be put up at auction at 10 o'clock on April 21. The order of sale is made upon proof presented by Jesse Hoyt, survivor of A. W. Greenleaf, Trustee, that there is now due the bondholders of the two Companies $2,600,- 000. All the property and franchises will be sold in one parcel. The two roads comprise the line from Milwaukee to Green Bay, and from Gilbert Junction to Men-asha, as well as a line from Menasha to Appleton.

THEODORE THOMAS.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, March 8.—Theodore Thomas, in an interview with an Enquirer reporter to-night, stated that nothing could now induce him to remain longer in Cincinnati. Active efforts have been made to-day by the friends of Thomas to obtain a controlling interest in the College of Music, but this announcement of Thomas will probably end their efforts. It is stated here that Chicago has been in secret negotiations with Mr. Thomas, but he states that he has no idea where he will go from here. His earnings since he has been here have been at the rate of about $15,000 per annum.

A BAD CROWD.

ELAU CLAIRE, March 8.—Rev Dr Brown, clergyman from Fond du Lac, and begging for the colored church of that place, attempted to lecture here on the "Mistakes of Bob Rogers." He was introduced by a stranger, who, after the audience had become so uproarious that Brother Brown could not proceed, proposed that the Reverend gentleman should dance a jig, whereupon the audience quickly dispersed among groans and hisses.

WRECKED.

Hardships of a Wrecked Crew off St.
Johns—Eight Men Drowned.

ST JOHN, N.B. March 8.—The bark Eblans, from Newport, Wales, for this port, was wrecked this morning at Nigger Head five miles from here. Capt. Barry and seven men were drowned. The vessel was driven close to the shore right under a frowning precipice. Boats were lowered only to be swept away, and all hands had to take to the rigging. Five unfortunately got into the mizzen rigging, while the remainder lashed themselves in the larboard rigging. After bumping on the rocks for some time the vessel suddenly tumbled over on her broad-side, and all in the mizzen rigging were drowned. Shortly afterwards the Master, Captain Barry, put on a life-preserver and attempted to swim ashore for the purpose of taking a line, but he never reached the land. The first mate and his wife, and two of the crew, were picked up by a boat from the shore. The other five men were drowned before the eyes of his comrades.
The remainder of the crew clung to the wreck till the storm subsided and the tide had fallen, and then got ashore and crawled on their hands and knees up the precipitous cliff. Although thoroughly exhausted they had to walk a mile and a half through the woods to meet a habitation. Fortunately the weather was not very cold, and they were only slightly frost bitten.

A Pittsburgh Official Insane Over it at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, March 8.—A strange, wild-eyed man came into the Hotel Hunt to-day and dropped into a chair. He was well dressed, wore a gold watch and chain, and would have seemed respectable had it not been for the splashes of mud all over him and a pair of blood shot eyes telling only too painfully of mixed drinks. After he had occupied the seat for half an hour muttering to himself, the day clerk approached him: "Want a room?" "Tairty, fourty, fifty," muttered the stranger, "Whizzer say, young man?" "If you do you want a room?" "Ninety, seven, thirteen, fifteen, sixteen, seventeen, eighteen,

BRIEFLETS.

—Some snow.
—Art lecture to-night.
—No new railroad routes were marked out to-day.
—The Doctor of Alcantara can be consulted at Lappin's music hall this evening for a quarter.
—Mrs. J. H. Hunkins who has been quite ill for the past four weeks, we are glad to learn is so much better as to be able to ride out.

—Judge Conner opens Court at Jefferson to-morrow. The motion for a new trial in the Fitzgibbons case will probably be argued then.
—The doctors are being kept on the go now-a-days. Bad roads and much sickness seem by some misfortune to be always coupled together.

—A life like india ink portrait of Hon. J. R. Bennett appears in the window of Roberts' drug store. It looks as if he must say, "Now, may it please the Court."

—Two vagrants were run in last night and were this morning sentenced to twenty-five days each at hard labor. The Sheriff will soon have enough of a gang to saw up that cord-wood in a hurry.
—We notice that a Chicago clothing house advertises thus: "We sell nearly everybody that comes in and looks at our goods." The best way then for a fellow is to stay away, if he don't want to be sold.

—Jo Cook got at the cup again last evening, and got so crazy as to abuse his folk, and try to thrash the Marshal. After being knocked down, he was sobered off enough so that he was taken to jail and locked up.

—At the meeting of the Mutual Improvement Club last evening there was a conversation on current events, after which was given a sketch of Schiller's life, followed by an informal talk about his place in literature. His minor poems were treated of, as were his contemporaries, making a very pleasant evening's study.

—Dr. J. M. Brydon, the Scotch doctor, is to again visit Janesville. He is to reach here on the 18th of this month and will occupy his old quarters at the Pemberton house, and will remain here for two weeks. Those who desire to consult the Doctor will find him a perfect gentleman. He makes surgery and chronic diseases a specialty, and when he visited this city last had a large patronage.

—Royal Wood's new lively stable on Bluff street is rapidly approaching completion, and will be occupied and in running order in the course of two weeks. The stables are two stories, 32 by 55 feet, and is very conveniently arranged. The carriage room is 55 feet deep, and there are fourteen stalls in the stable proper. The upper floor is also roomy and so arranged that the carriages can be let down or taken up on the inside of the building. The office is to be neatly fitted and the whole place will be a great improvement to that portion of the street. The new walk in front has led the adjacent property owners to decide to build new walks also, so that side of the street will be more popular with pedestrians.

Home Comforts, Moderate rates, Astor House, New York.

THE GAZETTE'S BIRTHDAY.

The Daily Gazette to-day begins its twenty-fourth year. A paper that has lived and grown for nearly a quarter of a century, and which has so many friends as the Gazette, is able to speak for itself, and needs no promises that its future will, like its past, grow brighter day by day.

THE WEATHER.

REPORTED BY PRENTICE & EVANSON, DRUGGISTS.

The thermometer at 6 o'clock last evening stood at 28 degrees above; at 1 o'clock a. m. to day at 28 degrees above; at 7 o'clock a. m. at 31 degrees above, and at 1 o'clock p. m. at 35 degrees above. A slight flurry of snow, followed by clearing weather.

The indications to day are, for the upper lake region, falling barometer, easterly winds, increasing cloudiness, and occasional snow, followed by rising barometer, colder northerly winds, and clearing weather.

WISCONSIN PATENTS.

The following patents were issued from the United States Patent Office to citizens of Wisconsin, for the week ending March 2, 1880. Reported by S. A. Hudson, solicitor of patents, Janesville, Wis.: Shaf coupling—Calvin Q. Hayes, Spring Green.
Magnetic grain separator—Jessie B. Tinsley, River Falls.
Vehicle springs—John B. Whitcomb, Beloit.

Grain binder—Charles B. Washington, Janesville; assignor to McCormick Harvesting Machine Company, Chicago, Illinois.
Clothes slide—William N. Wyler, Black River Falls.

ANTI HORSE THIEF SOCIETY.

At the annual meeting of the Johnstown Anti Horse Thief Society held at the Johnstown house on Monday, March 1st, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—H. B. Johnson.
1st Vice President—Andrew Berles.
2d Vice President—Geo. Hawthorne.
3d Vice President—G. D. Hall.
Secretary—A. M. Carter.
Treasurer—John Haight.
Riders—Clark B. Farmer, Austin D. Langley, James Hadden, Jr., E. C. Johnson and Wm. Riley.

On motion of R. T. Pemberton the Society voted to purchase five revolvers for the use of the riders. This hint was brought to the notice of our members by the fact that when the riders overtook the thief in Illinois a short time ago, with Mr. Godfrey's horses, of Lima, the thief was armed with a double barreled shot gun. This fellow is now bawling at Waupun.

A. M. CARTER, Secretary.

THAT DOCTOR.

There was a very large audience gathered in Lappin's Music hall last evening to greet the Doctor of Alcantara. Although it has been twice presented before in this city, yet there seemed to be no lack of interest or of enthusiasm last evening. It is such a charming bit of opera bouffe that it will bear repetition, and, more than that, it was given last evening in a really better form and with more effect than at any of its previous presentations. The scenic arrangement was fine, and the costumes were elegant. It is seldom that those who excel in music excel also in acting, but there was little lack in either respect last evening, the whole moving off with a harmony and smoothness which made the entertainment truly enjoyable.

Mrs. St. John's rich soprano voice showed to good advantage, and her acting was much better than before. The part of the wife of Dr. Paracelsus was taken by her admirably. Mrs. H. A. Smith, as her daughter, did some excellent work, and her voice proved not the least of the attractive features. Mrs. C. B. Conrad, as the maid, could not have done better, and as part received a more faithful rendition.

Dr. C. T. Barnes, of Chicago, who has a purer and sweeter tenor than it is generally the lot of Janesville music-lovers to hear, was in excellent voice, and represented Carlos in a most happy manner. E. M. Titcomb, of Harvard, took upon himself a double duty, and represented two characters, executing both finely, and showing a rich bass voice, which is peculiarly pleasant, and of great smoothness. D. D. Bennett, as the Doctor, was high perfect in his acting and did good vocal work. C. H. Patterson and T. H. Murphy acted as porters, and made this minor part prominent and enjoyable by the mirth provoking abilities. Prof. Titcomb served as accompanist, and as is well known, none can do better.

The opera was made much more enjoyable and mirthful than before, and was given a freshness by the introduction of new solos for all. The audience laughed and cheered and cheered and laughed, and gave evidence of having been really entertained. It is a high endorsement of this opera, and those who rendered it, that it will thus bear repetition without losing any of its interest. Those who had heard it before enjoyed it none the less last evening, and those who heard it for the first time express a desire to hear it again. It is to be repeated this evening at the same place, and there is a good prospect of there being a large audience, though it is hardly to be expected that the hall will be so filled as on last evening.

DEATH OF HUGH LEE.

The news comes from Beloit that Hugh Lee, one of the old settlers in Rock county, died at his home near that city yesterday. Mr. Lee had reached the ripe age of seven and seventy years, and was a man of more than ordinary ability and experience. He was born in England in 1803, and came to this country at the age of 12 years, living first in Boston, later in New York and in his early manhood he spent some time in Canada as a surveyor in the employ of the government. He was afterwards employed in contracting on the Chesapeake & Delaware ship canal. In 1834 he was employed by the United States government as inspector of stone and weighmaster on the Delaware breakwater near Cape May, and remained there until it was completed in 1838. For four years longer he was employed in contracting and engineering on different railroads East and West. In 1842 he came to Wisconsin and settled at Beloit. He took up 640 acres of land in Section 30, improved it, sold a portion, and has kept the rest as his home. In 1849 he quit farming, and entered public life again, and was engaged on several Western roads as engineer, contractor and surveyor. He surveyed the Surgeon Bay Ship canal, and was employed in various other enterprises until a few years ago, when he retired from all active business and has led since a quiet life, one of the sons of whom he had four, taking charge of the farm.

The deceased had a large circle of acquaintances and friends in this county, and his life has been such as has won for him the respect and esteem of all.

A SECRET GATHERING.

About fifty farmers, representing various Granges of the county, met at the Court House to-day, and were in secret session till late in the afternoon, discussing various subjects of interest to the Order only. The main theme of thought and talk is said to be the formation of a county fire insurance company. Nothing definite has been decided upon though the preliminary steps of drafting a constitution and by-laws were taken, and it may ripen into a permanent and active enterprise.

The Emerald Grove Lodge I. O. G. T. will give a literary entertainment, consisting of songs, recitations, and the temperance drama, "The Little Brown Jug," on Friday evening next, at the M. E. church. Admission 10 cents.

—We notice Chas. Stoller is going to have an auction the 16th of this month. He has a large amount of property to sell and means business as there will be no side bids.
